Region Profile: The City of Fuerstenfeldbruck

Stadt Fürstenfeldbruck

Economic structure

The mid-sized central community of Fürstenfeldbruck is an important and future-oriented economic site in the surrounding area west of Munich.

Fürstenfeldbruck stands out because of its widely diversified economic structure; it is the seat of many small and mid-sized companies, among which both traditional businesses and start-ups are to be found as well as crafts enterprises and hightech companies. Several global players such as the companies Coca-Cola European Partners Deutschland GmbH, ESG Elektronik- und Logistik GmbH, Güntner GmbH & Co. KG, and Schleifring und Apparatebau GmbH also value the economic site in the metropolitan region of Munich. The service sector is responsible for the largest portion of the total workforce.

Traffic connections

Located between the economic centers of Munich and Augsburg, the city of Fürstenfeldbruck has good connections to regional traffic networks as well as to the Augsburg Airport and to the Munich International Airport.

The freeways A8 (Munich-Stuttgart), A96 (Munich-Lindau) and A99 (freeway ring Munich) as well as federal highways B2 and B471 form a dense feeder network.

Two railway stations connect Fürstenfeldbruck to the Munich Airport via the public rapid-transit system of the metropolitan region of Munich. A well-developed bus network throughout the entire district rounds off the excellent traffic infrastructure.

Distances from Fürstenfeldbruck:

- Munich: approx. 35 km, travel time by suburban railway to the Munich central train station: approx. 30 min.
- Munich Airport: approx. 55 km, travel time by suburban railway: approx. 1:15 hrs.
- Augsburg: approx. 55 km, travel time by suburban railway/train connection: approx. 1 hr.

Educational site

The comprehensive range of advanced training and professional schools in Fürstenfeldbruck – among which are various secondary schools, two college preparatory high schools, a vocational school and a technical college – as well as the proximity of the universities of Munich and Augsburg, contribute to the fact that a great potential of miscellaneous qualified employees is available to the companies in Fürstenfeldbruck.

The retail sector

The retail sector in Fürstenfeldbruck, besides featuring family-owned businesses, also boasts of retailers that operate nationwide thus guaranteeing the broadly based supply of the resident population. The two major retail shopping centers are located in the downtown area and in the Buchenau to the west of the city center.
