Region Profile: Kelheim

The Administrative District of Kelheim – productive and future oriented!

The administrative district of Kelheim lies in the middle of Bavaria with respect to geographic traffic connections and thus it is excellently connected by all means of transportation to international networks. Its advantageous infrastructure and geographic location have made the district an attractive economic site. Both the Munich and the Nuremberg airports can be reached by car in an hour at the most from the district of Kelheim.

With the opening of the Main-Danube Canal a waterway network with a total length of 3,500 km was created. For freight transportation, the port of Kelheim/Saal on the Danube represents access to a traffic system of international status. In the meantime it has become one of the 3 most frequented ports in Bavaria.

Powerful and influential concerns utilize the site advantages of our district as well as many middle-sized businesses. Several enterprises in the automotive supplies industry have recognized the site advantages of the district of Kelheim. Their sales markets are guaranteed by the factories of the traditional automobile manufacturers BMW in Munich, Regensburg, Dingolfing and Landshut as well as AUDI in Ingolstadt.

The immediate vicinity of the scientific stronghold Regensburg with its university and technical college and good connections to the Technical University of Munich and other scientific institutions make the district of Kelheim interesting to innovative companies.

Classical industrial zones as real estate potential and reservoir for the needs of the local economy and as available possibility for new settlers are to be found in nearly every community in the district. The best prerequisites for innovation and growth in the county district of Kelheim.
